Subject: Celebration of Daan Utsav 2026 (2nd–8th October) by NSS Units.

Sir,

I am directed to refer to the subject mentioned above and to say that Daan Utsav (Festival of Giving) is scheduled from 2nd to 8th October, 2026 (copy enclosed). Daan Utsav is an annual 100% volunteer-driven festival celebrated across the country to encourage the spirit of donation, volunteering, and community service. As 2026 is designated as the International Year of Volunteers for Sustainable Development, the organizers have requested the issuance of an official circular to NSS Units across states and educational institutions to foster wider participation.

2. For the upcoming 2026 celebrations, Directorate of NSS, New Delhi is requested for issuance of a circular to all Regional Directorates, State NSS Officers, Programme Coordinators, and Programme Officers including NSS Units in Senior Secondary (+2) school encouraging participation in the said event.

3. It is also pertinent to mention that participation of NSS units in the said event shall be purely on voluntary basis and there should be no financial implication on NSS due to the same.

4. A brief of Daan Utsav celebrations by NSS units is attached. NSS Units may contact Ms. Megha Aggarwal at +91-9650859976 or megha.iwt@gmail.com for more information on the matter.

Yours faithfully,

15.09.2026

DaanUtsav 2024 Celebrations by NSS Units

#DaanUtsav is India's festival of giving celebrated from October 2 to October 8 every year.

About #DaanUtsav

DaanUtsav, India's Festival of Giving, is celebrated annually from 2nd to 8th October. It is a nationwide movement that encourages people and institutions to celebrate generosity through acts of kindness and community service. Giving during DaanUtsav is not limited to monetary contributions—it includes giving time, skills, resources, materials, or simply a kind gesture to support causes and communities in need. By inspiring people to contribute in ways that are meaningful to them, DaanUtsav promotes compassion, volunteerism, and active citizenship, making giving accessible to everyone

Over the years, DaanUtsav has been celebrated across schools, colleges, corporates, NGOs, RWAs, government institutions, clubs, hospitals, cafés, and communities, with participants organizing diverse initiatives that address local needs and strengthen the spirit of compassion and active citizenship.

Subject: Celebration of DaanUtsav (October 2-8) - regarding.

Sir/Madam

I am directed to refer to the subject and to say that DaanUtsav is an initiative taken by volunteers from different walks of life. It is a 100% volunteer driven week-long festival, which encourages people to do an act of giving of their choice. This festival is celebrated during 2nd to 8th October every year since 2009 across the country. It is not an initiative of any particular organization, but a celebration to encourage the spirit of Donation. There is no restriction of any kind on what to donate, how to donate, where to donate etc.

2. NSS units under your jurisdiction may be encouraged to host a workshop on DaanUtsav inviting NSS coordinators to learn about how they can plan their DaanUtsav activities.

3. A brief on DaanUtsav along with some names of volunteers (copy enclosed), who are associated with DaanUtsava and can brief on concept and help to organise the event successfully.

Campus Seva Mela

Seva Mela – Institute of Home Economics (IHE), University of Delhi

The NSS Unit of the Institute of Home Economics (IHE), University of Delhi organized a Seva Mela as part of DaanUtsav, bringing together students through a range of giving and volunteering initiatives. The event encouraged participants to contribute essential items, engage in community-focused activities, and celebrate the spirit of generosity through collective participation. Seva Mela served as a vibrant platform to promote compassion, volunteerism, and social responsibility on campus.

Radio Mirchi Awareness Initiative

As part of DaanUtsav celebrations, NSS Journalism students participated in a Radio Mirchi programme to spread awareness about the Festival of Giving. Through the interaction, they highlighted the significance of DaanUtsav and encouraged listeners to celebrate by giving their time, skills, resources, and kindness. The programme helped amplify the message of giving and inspired wider community participation.

Subject: Celebration of Daan Utsav 2025 (2nd–8th October) by NSS Units-Reg.

Sir/Madam,

With the reference of communication received from Daan Utsav organisation(attached) on the subject cited above as you are aware, Daan Utsav (2nd–8th October) is celebrated across India every year as a "festival of giving," where citizens are encouraged to contribute their time, skills, and resources for the joy of giving. NSS volunteers across the country have actively participated in Daan Utsav in previous years, undertaking a wide variety of activities that embody the spirit of service and compassion.

This year too, all NSS Units are requested to celebrate Daan Utsav 2025 with their volunteers and local communities. The celebrations may include simple, no-cost activities such as:

1. Sharing skills with peers and community members (e.g. teaching how to use digital tools like ChatGPT or Paytm, making reels, or editing videos)
2. Spending time with the elderly (playing games, singing songs, listening to stories)
3. Setting up a "Wish Tree" by collecting wishes for useful items from underprivileged communities and mobilizing donations to fulfill them
4. Organizing awareness drives on organ donation, health, fitness, yoga, or Zumba
5. Creating a "Wall of Giving" or "Gratitude Wall" for people to share notes of thanks and kindness
6. Conducting clean-up drives in public spaces
7. Collecting and distributing books, stationery, or other useful materials
8. Any other creative activity that brings joy to both givers and receivers

These are only suggestive activities; Programme Officers and volunteers are encouraged to celebrate in ways that bring them joy and reflect their local needs.

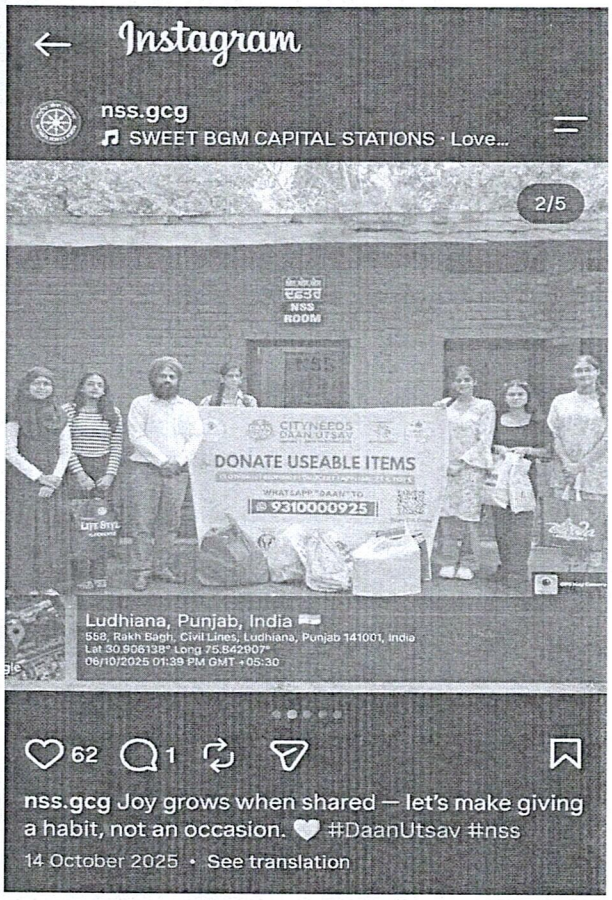

For further ideas and resources on Daan Utsav, you may also refer to www.daanutsav.org..

Campus Seva Mela

As part of DaanUtsav 2025, five DaanUtsav Seva Melas were organized in partnership with iVolunteer, transforming college campuses into vibrant hubs of giving, volunteering, and community engagement.

Across the reported Seva Melas at PGDAV College, Acharya Narendra Dev College (ANDC), and JIMS, over 237 students, faculty, and staff actively participated in a diverse range of initiatives. These included donation drives, blood donation camps, eye check-up camps, community outreach, food stalls, diya painting, mehndi and bangle stalls, and the collection and distribution of clothes for underserved communities.

The enthusiastic participation across campuses reflected the growing spirit of volunteerism and demonstrated how Seva Melas can serve as vibrant platforms for promoting generosity, compassion, and community engagement during DaanUtsav.
